2.20 COMPLETION OF COURSES

(c) In events where it is required to cross a line to finish, should a competitor or team not correctly cross the finish line as prescribed in the relevant Section for that event, they may recover and correctly re-cross the finish line to record their placing.

2.22 FINISH OF EVENTS

(e) In events where competitors run to and across a finish line, the finish of the race is judged when the competitor crosses the line on their feet. The finish is judged on the chest of the competitor when crossing the finish line.

Note: Falling across the line is not deemed to have finished the event.

8.6.3 Procedure

(f) On the starting signal, each patient shall enter the water and swim to their allotted buoy. excepting that should a competitor swim to a wrong buoy and signal the team shall be disqualified. On reaching their allotted buoy, the patient shall place their forearm over the top of the buoy and then signal their arrival by raising their other arm to a vertical position whilst remaining in contact with the buoy. The said signal, subject to all conditions being fulfilled, shall be the determining factor in judging the patient's arrival at their buoy

(h) The finish is judged on the chest of the first competitor of the team (i.e. patient or rescuer) crossing the start/finish line on their feet, with both the rescuer and patient being in contact with the board.
